

Why do we have F.O.S.D.?

Last Updated Thursday, 08 November 2007

The idea behind FOSD is to raise money for those extra items that the school and children could really benefit from having, but where the funds are not readily available within the school budgets. The special items that would not come under the area of the normal curriculum. Fun or play equipment. Items that make their time at school safer.